

Our Growing Team

Author : Ryan

Date : November 12, 2013

I'm excited about 3 quality interns coming to serve with Builders International in 2014. These young men and women are skilled in the fields of Architecture and Project Management. They have decided to set aside personal ambition and dedicate a year of volunteer service. Here is the story of Hilary, Chris, and Matthew...

Chris in El Salvador

Hilary Dyer

- School: MIT/Stanford
- Degree: Civil Engineering/Project Management
- About Hilary: Attended Chi Alpha at Stanford, felt a call toward missions, worked 4 years as a project manager, now headed to Tanzania.
- Give to support Hilary on her assignment in Tanzania : Click Here
- See Hilary's full bio

Hilary Dyer

Matthew Moeckel

- School: North Dakota State University
- Degree: Architecture
- About Matt: From a young child struggling with dyslexia to an Architect hungry to serve God with his talent.
- Give to support Matt in his assignment at Builders International: Click Here
- See Matt's full bio

Matthew Moeckel

Chris Clanton

- School: Lawrence Technological University
- Degree: Architecture
- About Chris: A well traveled pastor's son, with a Masters Degree in Architecture, ready to serve.
- Give to support Chris in his assignment at Builders International: Click Here
- See Chris's full bio

Chris Clanton

Check out other internship opportunities at: <http://buildersintl.org/connect/intern/>